

Questions on New Testament Prophecy

1. Was the gift of prophecy a revelatory gift or did it refer merely to Spirit-helped preaching?
2. What were the rules governing the gift of prophecy?
3. Were women allowed to prophesy?
4. Is the New Testament gift of prophecy different than Old Testament prophecy? In other words, can someone with the New Testament gift give a wrong or unfulfilled prophecy?
5. Don't the messages of the gift of prophecy come as inner impressions, making misinterpretation by the prophet possible?
6. Were prophecies to be tested for accuracy?
7. But what's the harm of letting someone speak "a word from God," even if it's not really the New Testament gift of prophecy?
8. Does 1 Corinthians 13:8-10 tell us when the gift of prophecy will cease?
9. Why would anyone want fallible prophecies anyway?
